IMPORTANT!

The credit bonus will be automatically deducted without prior notice when your real funds are depleted (i.e., when your floating losses equal your real funds). Once the bonus is removed, a stop-out will be triggered, leading to the liquidation of all open positions. This process is automatic and non-negotiable.

Monitoring Margin Levels

Please be aware that the 100% Credit Bonus affects the margin level percentage displayed in your account. As a result, the margin level may not accurately reflect your true risk exposure.
